VOLUNTEERS NEEDED NOW TO HELP US
PREPARE FOR OUR CENTENARY OPEN DAY - 2\textsuperscript{nd} MAY

Please complete the form below, return it to the office ASAP
and we will be in touch

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Your name__________________________________________

Your phone number____________________________________

Your email address_____________________________________

Area of interest or particular skill (PTO for details)

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------
VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
NOW
WITH THE FOLLOWING:

Contacting past students and teachers
Invitation design, printing & circulating
Advertising
Opening Ceremony
Photography
Historical displays

Student and teacher reunions
Kids’ games room
Itinerary design and printing
Registration booth
Set up and clear up
Managing centenary journals